

Our Family Top 10 for 2010

Have each member of your family write down the top five activities that they would like to do as a family in 2010 on one of the cards below. Cut out and tape everyone's list up on the wall for all to see. Get together and choose the top ten activities that the whole family would like to do in 2010 based on each person's individual lists. Here are three things to consider as you and your family make your Top 10 for 2010 List: Is this activity financially wise for our family? What are each of our family members likes and dislikes? Is there an activity that you can do together as a family that serves others?
